JUNE WEDDINGS

Blair-Smith.

A very pretty June wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Hattie Roy at North Monroe, N. H., Wednesday evening, June 14, when her daughter, Grace M. Smith, and Elsworth J. Blair were united in marriage. Rev. D. E. Burns performed the ring ceremony. The bridal party entered the parlor as Miss Bertha Smith of Boston played the wedding march. The bride wore a lovely white silk embroidered gown and carried white carnations tied with white ribbon. She was attended by two bridesmaids, Miss Alice Smith, a sister of the bride, and Miss Edith Blair, a sister of the groom. Both were dressed in dainty white muslin and carried bouquets of red and pink flowers. Arthur James, a cousin of the bride, acted as best man. The bridal party stood under an arch of ferns and roses. Ruth Blair, a sister of the groom, was ring girl and carried the ring on the stem of a rose. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. They received many beautiful presents of silver, china, linen, bric-a-brac, and a sum of money. Mr. and Mrs. Blair are popular young people and their many friends wish them happiness in their new life. They left for a carriage drive through Franconia mountains and returned to their new home in North Monroe, Sunday.

Richardson-Pullen.

The Newton correspondence of the Boston Globe of June 25, contained the following account of the wedding of James P. Richardson, formerly of St. Johnsbury, and Miss Anna L. Pullen of Newtonville, which we are glad to publish. Mr. Richardson has a host of friends here, who extend congratulations.

"Former Dartmouth students acted as ushers at the wedding of Miss Anna L. Pullen of 80 Highland avenue, Newtonville, and James P. Richardson, Dartmouth '99, which took place at 8 last evening in St. John's church, Rev. Richard T. Loring, the rector, officiating.

Gowned in a lace robe and carrying a bouquet of pink sweet peas the bride was attended by her sister, Miss Carolyn W. Pullen, as maid of honor. The best man was Irving T. French, Dartmouth '01, while the ushers were Ernest J. Eddy of Portland, Me., Dartmouth '01; Rolfe W. Smith of Leominster, Dartmouth '01; Paul M. Osgood of Somerville, Dartmouth '99, and Arthur G. Sprague of St. Johnsbury. In a reception which followed, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Pullen, parents of the bride, and Mrs. Frank Richardson, mother of the groom, assisted. The couple left for a trip through Vermont and New Hampshire."

Hastings-Jackson.

The Methodist church at Barnston, Que., was the scene of a very pretty wedding, last Wednesday evening, when Miss Jennie Jackson, the sister-in-law of the popular tinsmith, W. R. Buckland, was united in marriage with Elbridge G. Hastings of St. Johnsbury. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Edith Jackson, of Erie, P. Q. The pastor of the church, Rev. L. H. Fisher, S. T. L., officiated. The bride looked charming in a white silk dress, and veil fastened with orange blossoms. Her only ornament was a gold locket and chain, the gift of the groom. The bridesmaid was dressed in white embroidered organdie, heavily trimmed with applique. The church was decorated with flowers, and Mrs. Fisher presided at the organ by special request. After the ceremony at the church, the wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. W. R. Buckland. On their return from a trip to Montreal, and points west, the happy couple will be at home at their residence near St. Johnsbury.
